Initial Complaint Narrative

Complainant states that he and his girlfriend were going to pick up his brother when they observed PO Davis approaching from the left lane. Complainant observed the officer coming down the block. Complainant states the officers rushed to the driver's side and backed up like they were going to ambush them. Complainant states the officers aggressively yanked open the passenger side door. The officer asked for his license and registration. Complainant also states the officers were not courteous to him. Complainant gave them his license and registration card. When the officers did not find anything, he was issued a summons for double parking.
