CCRB statement:

[REDACTED] was interviewed at the CCRB on April 20, 2016.

[REDACTED] filed this complaint so late because he was indecisive and hoped that the "system" would do something about the situation. However, he now realizes that only he could do something about it.

On June 2, 2015, at approximately 3:45 p.m., [REDACTED] stood behind a gated area as he spoke with his friend, [REDACTED] in front of his residence located on [REDACTED] in the Bronx. [REDACTED] gave [REDACTED] five dollars that he had previously lent him. Nothing else was exchanged between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stood inside the gated area and [REDACTED] stood directly in front of the gate. He spoke with [REDACTED] through the "gaps" in the gate and at no point did he open the door. The gate is located directly in front of his residence and there is a door which is normally locked and without a key a person would have to be buzzed in. However, the buzzer was broken on the date of incident. Therefore, the gate was unlocked. [REDACTED] denied doing anything else besides speaking to [REDACTED]. He denied engaging in any illegal activities. Neither [REDACTED] nor [REDACTED] was smoking. [REDACTED] denied yelling, shouting, or playing loud music during the incident. It was quiet during the time of incident, at approximately 2:30 p.m.

[REDACTED] friend, [REDACTED] (he did not provide his last name), stood in front of the building directly across the street from [REDACTED] during the incident.

Approximately 10 minutes of being outside, a grey or black unmarked van stopped in front of his residence. The vehicle did not have any lights or sirens engaged. [REDACTED] did not recall the make or model of the vehicle, but stated that it was possibly a Ford or Chevrolet. He did not record the license plate number of the vehicle.

Initially, [REDACTED] stated that PO1 exited the van first and then PO2 and PO3 followed after, but he clarified that PO1, PO2, and PO3, all exited the van together. PO1 walked towards [REDACTED] while PO2 and PO3 stood nearby. PO1 asked [REDACTED] who he was, what he was doing here, and asked to see his ID. [REDACTED] did not answer PO1 and asked, "What?" PO1 called [REDACTED] "homeboy" and made stereotypical statements. When asked what he meant by stereotypical statements, [REDACTED] stated that PO1 seemed like he has arrested people like him before and was looking to arrest another "homie."

[REDACTED] described PO1 as a white male, in plainclothes (wore shorts, black shirt, and did not wear a hat), 5'10" – 6' tall, husky build, weighs approximately 220 pounds, with possibly grey, blonde, or black hair, "Caesar"-haircut, and had light facial hair. PO1 possibly had tattoo on his arm, but did not recall. He did not wear glasses.

PO2 was described as a male, dark-skinned, in plainclothes (he wore a hat, black shirt, and green pants), 5'4"-5'5" tall, stocky/athletic, and looked older than 30 years old.

PO3 was described as a white male, in plainclothes (wore a hat, t-shirt, and pants), 5'7" tall, average build, with light facial hair, and blonde hair.

Subsequently, PO1 opened the gate, approached [REDACTED] and then placed his hand inside [REDACTED] left sweater pocket. PO1 did not remove anything from that pocket. [REDACTED] stated that the pocket was empty. He had his keys in another pocket. PO1 did not go into any other pockets. [REDACTED] stated that the officers went inside his other pockets after he was "tackled." [REDACTED] stated that he did not hold anything in his hands. He then stated that he possibly held a metro card in his hand. After PO1 placed his hand inside his pocket, PO1 lured him out by saying, "Come here," and asking for his ID. [REDACTED] told the officer that he lived there.

[REDACTED] stated that PO1 did not identify himself initially and only stated, "Shut up, I'm the law," when he asked who he was. PO1 then displayed his badge which was attached to a chain around his neck. [REDACTED] stated that he was paranoid and his anxiety increased during the incident. He did not know if they were actual NYPD officers because they were in "street clothes" and did not identify themselves. [REDACTED] stated that he found out their names at the precinct. When pressed on how he obtained that information, he stated that he did not obtain their names and that the information was possibly just on the report. [REDACTED] stated that he did not know the officers' names.

[REDACTED] stated that since PO1 did not respect him, he addressed PO1 in the same manner, but denied getting nasty. [REDACTED] stated PO1 did not cooperate with him and he felt that he did not do anything wrong. [REDACTED] stated that he was protecting himself and tried to cooperate to the best of his ability.

Once [REDACTED] was outside the gate, the officers stood in a triangle-formation around him. The officers again asked [REDACTED] for his ID. In response, he stated that he lived there and for them to provide their badge numbers, names, and their precinct because he wanted to file a complaint. [REDACTED] initially only asked PO1, but he later asked PO2 and PO3 as well. None of the officers provided any of the aforementioned information. When [REDACTED] stood outside the gate, [REDACTED] stood inches away from him. [REDACTED] did not have any conversation with the officers which caused [REDACTED] to believe that the officers had a personal vendetta against him.

At some point, all of the officers cursed at [REDACTED]. He did not recall the specific curse words they used, but he recalled them saying "shut up," possibly the "F" word, and "homie."

He admitted that he was "hot-headed" during the incident and exchanged words with the officers. He noted that PO2 was the main officer that antagonized the situation. [REDACTED] stated that he spoke at a high voice because the officers spoke at a high voice. [REDACTED] stated that he possibly used profanities, but did not recall if he actually did so. [REDACTED] stated that he and the officers were aggravated during the incident.

[REDACTED] stated that he began to panic during the incident which affected his breathing and caused him to constantly look around. He was also getting upset and nervous and began fidgeting. [REDACTED] was moving his body and moved his hands up and down constantly which he described as actions similar to a music composer. [REDACTED] stated that he kept his distance from the officers. However, he later stated that he walked closer to the officers because he felt as if he was being harassed. Additionally, he said that he went close to the officers because the officers came close to him and there were points during the incident where he walked up to the officers to make a point.

[REDACTED] and PO2 were engaged in a "heated" conversation and [REDACTED] was moving his arms "all over the place" while holding onto an envelope. [REDACTED] denied striking the officers or making any physical contact with them. At some point thereafter, PO2 struck [REDACTED]. PO2 swung his arm towards [REDACTED] face. He did not recall whether PO2 used a closed fist at this point. In response, [REDACTED] placed his right forearm across his forehead to block the hit. PO2 subsequently made contact with his arm and grabbed it. PO1 and PO3 assisted by grabbing [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was then pushed against the gate causing his head to bang against it. He felt punches towards his stomach and rib area and felt strikes against his head as he was being pushed down to the ground. He did not see which officer punched him. [REDACTED] crossed both of his arms across his chest and grabbed his own shoulders trying to block himself from getting hit and to protect his face. [REDACTED] denied doing anything else. [REDACTED] initially stated that he was kicked in the neck, but he later stated that he was kned in the neck, his back, and head. [REDACTED] later clarified by visually showing the investigator that an officer had one knee to the back of his neck while his other foot was on top of the back of his head. He affirmed that he was able to breathe "a little" when the officer made contact with his neck. As the officers pinned him to the ground he was slightly dragged. [REDACTED] stated that the pressure the officers were applying to him caused him to move on the ground. The aforementioned occurrence caused him to sustain contusions to his knees and elbows. [REDACTED] denied making any movements during this incident and stated that he let the officers place him in handcuffs. [REDACTED] was handcuffed while on the ground and was subsequently lifted up and escorted to the police vehicle. [REDACTED]

As the car was nearing [REDACTED] Det. Alvarez saw [REDACTED] handing a small object to [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] moving his hand towards [REDACTED] which he believed to appear to be a narcotics transaction. At this point, Det. Alvarez stated that it appeared to be a narcotics transaction. Det. Alvarez did not have any discussion with Det. Russell or Det. Hawreluk in regards to his observation. He stated that he announced, "He's selling to him," at which point the vehicle stopped before driving past the location. Det. Alvarez stated that Det. Russell and Det. Hawreluk also observed this after he made the announcement, if they were not already looking. However, Det. Alvarez did not know if Det. Russell or Det. Hawreluk confirmed that they observed what he saw. Det. Alvarez affirmed that he did not see anything else exchanged.

Det. Alvarez stated that there are a few steps leading to the entrance in front of [REDACTED]. Subsequent to the steps there is a door which led to a foyer where there were mailboxes and then another door. He initially stated that there was no gated area in front of the residence, but he later amended this and stated that there was a gated area with a door which was wide opened after viewing the video footage. He also stated that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were both on the steps inside the gated area when he first observed them. Det. Alvarez stated that he was able to see through the gate from the side and that the door was opened which also allowed him to see inside.

Det. Alvarez stated that he believed the small object to be a small glassine of heroine which he described as a small square envelope. During the interview, Det. Alvarez gestured that the object was apparently 1 to 2 inches in size. Moreover, he stated that the object was white. Det. Alvarez did not see [REDACTED] receive the object. He only saw [REDACTED] reaching over with the object and [REDACTED] reaching his hand out. Det. Alvarez stated that the vehicle stopped once he made the observation and he did not see where the object was after they stopped the vehicle.

Det. Alvarez, Det. Russell, and Det. Hawreluk exited the vehicle based on Det. Alvarez's observation. At the time, Det. Alvarez intent was to make an inquiry in regards to what they were doing. He did not have intent to issue a summons or make an arrest at this point. When Det. Alvarez was asked whether [REDACTED] was free to leave, Representative Joe Montori stated that they were making an inquiry and that they were not free to leave. When asked again if they were not free to leave, Det. Alvarez stated that [REDACTED] stuck both of his hands in his pocket which raised his suspicion. Det. Alvarez and Det. After seeing this, Det. Alvarez stated that his suspicion raised and he did not know if he
